** Stuart Smith Elected to Faces & Voices of Recovery Board of Directors ****

LAS VEGAS, NV— We are pleased to announce that Stuart Smith, President and CEO of Central Recovery Treatment, the parent company of Las Vegas Recovery Center (LVRC), was recently elected to the Faces & Voices of Recovery Board of Directors.

Faces & Voices of Recovery is the national organization of individuals and organizations joining together with a united voice to advocate for public action to deliver the power, possibility, and proof of recovery from addiction. Faces & Voices of Recovery is working to mobilize, organize, and rally the millions of people in recovery from addiction to alcohol and other drugs, their families, friends, and allies in a campaign to end discrimination; broaden social understanding; and achieve a just response to addiction as a public health crisis. For more information, please visit www.facesandvoicesofrecovery.com.

Las Vegas Recovery Center is a privately owned, state-of-the-art facility for the treatment of addiction. It also has an innovative, opioid-free treatment program for chronic pain. It is licensed by the State of Nevada and accredited by The Joint Commission, an independent, not-for-profit organization that evaluates and accredits nearly 15,000 health care organizations and programs in the US.

LVRC is dedicated to providing a continuum of care for those seeking recovery from addiction. Programs offered are individualized inpatient treatment, which includes medically-managed withdrawal, chronic pain rehabilitation, intensive outpatient programs, and an intensive program designed specifically for families.
